

HURRICANE PROTECTION PLAN

Named Insured: _____ Boat: _____

Who will prepare your boat for a hurricane? _____

When will you initiate action to protect your boat? _____

If a hurricane watch is issued in your area, where will you locate your boat? _____

What are the characteristics of the location that will help protect your boat from the effects of wind, waves and extreme tides? _____

How will hatches, windows, doors, electronics, etc. be secured and protected? _____

What will be used to prevent dock/mooring lines from chafing? _____

What type of fender protection will you use? _____

If your boat will be in a slip do you have a second set of extra long, large diameter dock lines that will be used to secure your boat to pilings and cleats in adjacent slips? _____

If your boat will be anchored in a "hurricane hole" do you have multiple storm anchors with chain and enough rode to allow a scope for each anchor of at least 10:1 at the highest expected tidal surge level? _____

If your boat will be on a mooring, is the mooring gear in top condition and of sufficient size? _____
Describe anchor and tackle _____

If your boat will be stored on land will all poppets be chained and placed on pads or other surface that will provide protection against the effects of erosion? _____

Will you remove all dodgers, enclosures, sails, antennas, outriggers, spars and other items that may cause windage problems? _____

If your mast will remain stepped, will all halyards lead away from the mast? _____

Where will you store your electronics, fishing gear and other removable items? _____

Will you disconnect any shore power and close all seacocks and fuel lines? _____

How will you check the condition of your batteries and bilge pumps? _____

What will you use to plug main engine and generator exhaust pipes? _____

Additional comments: _____

Insured's signature _____ Date _____